

510004

INTRODUCTION TO MODERN GREEK SOCIETY

Teacher responsible: S. Sakellaropoulos

compulsory (C) or selection (S) course	year	winter (W) or spring (S) semester
C	1st	S

Students should be given a concise, but also as much as possible comprehensive and multi-levelled, overview of Modern Hellenism, the way it was constituted, its dynamic and its functioning in contemporary Greek society. There is thus an examination of questions such as the evolution of the Greek state from the early 19th century to the present, the development of the Greek population, its spatial redistribution, the country's urbanization, the Greek church and its relations with the State, the Greek diaspora, aspects of Modern Greek civilization, etc.

- Reading list:
- Svoronos, N., 1985. Survey of Modern Greek History. Athens: Themelio (in Greek).
 - Kremmydas, V., ed., 1999, Introduction to the Modern Greek Economy. Athens: Typothito (in Greek).
 - Dossier