

510022

SATISTICS II: SAMPLE SURVEY THEORY AND PRACTICE

Teacher responsible: C. Michalopoulou

compulsory (C) or selection (S) course	year	winter (W) or spring (S) semester
C	2nd	S

The course is an introduction to basic ideas of sampling for the social survey. It covers elements of the theory of probability sampling, design decisions, methods of probability sampling, response and non-response.

- Reading list:
- Michalopoulou, C., 2004. In the Empire of Indications: The History of Sampling Practice in Greece. Athens: Papazisis (in Greek).
 - Diamond, I. & Jefferies, J., 2006. Beginning Statistics: An Introduction for Social Scientists. Sage (translated into Greek).