

510039

HISTORY OF SOCIAL POLICY II

Teacher responsible: M. Korasidou

compulsory (C) or selection (S) course	year	winter (W) or spring (S) semester
S	3rd	S

This course examines the most important findings of recent research into Greek historiography about the questions of social policy in modern Greece (19th century-Inter-War). The specific topics examined are poverty and social Assistance, the emergence of the working class, trade unionism and social insurance, the work of women and children, the feminist movement, the question of refugees.

- Reading list:
- Korasidou, M., 1995. The Miserables of Athens and their Therapists. Poverty and Philanthropy in the Greek Capital in the 19th Century. Athens: Gutenberg (in Greek).
 - Liakos, A., 1993. Work and Policy in Greece During the Inter War. International Labour Office and the Emergence of Local Institutions. Athens (in Greek).