

510054

MODERN SOCIAL MOVEMENTS AND SOCIAL INTERVENTIONS

Teacher responsible: M. Korasidou

Compulsory(C) or selection (S) course	year	Winter (W) or Spring (S) semester
S	3rd	S

The course examines those movements that claimed civil, political and social rights, and contributed decisively to the formation of modern western societies. These movements were the Ludistic movement, the Chartist movement, utopian socialism, the union, socialist and workers' movement, romanticism, the national movement and the women's and feminist movement.

Reading list - Dossier