

510097

LABOUR PARTICIPATION INSTITUTIONS AND SOCIAL DIALOGUE

Teacher responsible: I. Kouzis

compulsory (C) or selection (S) course	year	winter (W) or spring (S) semester
S	4th	S

The course aims to analyse the concept labour participation and the different forms that historically it is linked, as well as of the social dialogue and its content within the contemporary European field. As such it examines the role of workers participation in capitalism, the rights and responsibilities that this is linked in Greece and internationally, as well as social dialogue practices, their terms, and the discussion on the dialogue's role as a mean of resolving collective disputes in comparison with social conflicts theory.

Reading list: - Dossier