BASIC CONCEPTS OF CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Teacher responsible: Th. Tzonos

Compulsory (C) or selection (S) course	year	Winter (W) or Spring (S) semester
S	3rd	W

The aim of this course is to approach the basic concepts of constitutional law, which are necessary for the understanding of the wider institutional environment in which Social Policy is developed. In this framework, after a general and summary approach of the concept of Law, the concepts of the State and the Regime (from a law perspective and in the individual categories), the Constitution and its individual categories, and the sources of the constitutional law (Constitution, Law, House's Rules, Decrees, International Treaties etc.) are developed.
