

510161

THE INSTITUTIONS OF THE STATE

Teacher responsible: Th. Tzonos

Compulsory (C) or selection (S) course	year	Winter (W) or Spring (S) semester
S	3rd	W

The aim of this course is to offer the future graduates of the Department the necessary knowledge on the institutions of the State with which they will have official or professional relations in their working life. From this perspective, the People, the House, the President of the Republic and the Government, in their constitutional dimension (concept, establishment, operation, mutual relations in the exercise of their powers) are examined. The course ends with a summary of the judicial bodies.

- Reading list
- Pantelis, A.M., 2007. Manual of Constitutional Law. 2nd edition. Athens: Livanis (in Greek).
 - Spyropoulos, F., 2006. Introduction to the Constitutional Law. Athens-Komotini: Sakkoulas (in Greek).