

510162

BASIC CONCEPTS OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Teacher responsible: Th. Tzonos

Compulsory (C) or selection (S) course	year	Winter (W) or Spring (S) semester
S	3rd	S

The aim of this course to analyse the basic concepts of administrative law, which follow those who develop activities within / or in contact with the Greek administration. Therefore, the concepts of public administration, public service, administrative law and its sources, are examined. Furthermore, the basic principles governing the activities of administrative bodies, in particular the principles of legality, public interest and protection of the citizen are examined.

- Reading list
- Spiliotopoulos, E.P., 2012. Manual of Administrative Law. vol. 1, 14th edition. Athens: Law Library (in Greek).
 - Gerontas, A., Lytras, S., Pavlopoulos, P., Sioutis, G., & Flogaitits, S., 2010. Administrative Law, 2nd edition. Athens-Komotini: Sakkoulas (in Greek).