

510423

SEMINAR: SOCIAL ADMINISTRATION AND THE IMPLEMENTATION OF SOCIAL PROGRAMMES

Teacher responsible: K. Dimoulas

Compulsory (C) or selection (S) course	year	Winter (W) or Spring (S) semester
S	3rd	W

The aim of the seminar is to analyse the administrative rules underpinning the governance of social programmes in Greece. The focus is on a critical examination of the bureaucratic and new public management approaches in the administration of social programmes and their impact on the delivery of benefits and services to the beneficiaries (employment and social protection programmes, caring- programmes, Local Authorities' welfare programmes etc.). During the seminar, students are expected to study and present at least one social programme and its method and practice of implementation.

- Reading list:
- Michalopoulos, N., 2003. From public bureaucracy to public management. Athens: Papazisis (in Greek).
 - Karkatsoulis, P., 2004. The state in transition. Athens: Sideris (in Greek).
 - Dossier